PROSPER MAUFOUX AU CHÂTEAU DE SAINT-AUBIN

Immersion in the heart of the Côte de Beaune

A neighbour of Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet, Château de Saint-Aubin is set in the heart of a village entirely dedicated to wine-growing.

The 9 hectares of vines adjoining the Château are home to some of Burgundy's most prestigious appellations: Criots-Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru, Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru, Meursault 1er Cru, Chassagne-Montrachet and Saint-Aubin 1er Cru.

It's the perfect place to stop off on the Burgundy wine trail. In a warm and refined setting amidst the vines, guests are welcomed as if they were invited.

“ Our modern & sustainable vision of hospitality in Burgundy ”

AURÉLIEN PIFFAUT

PROSPER MAUFOUX AU CHÂTEAU DE SAINT-AUBIN

Guest House

In the heart of the estate, 4 rooms have been tastefully renovated, combining design and modern comfort while respecting the historic details of the house. This emblematic Château in the village of Saint-Aubin stands in the middle of a vineyard and reflects 300 years of Burgundy history.

Guests are welcomed by Pascale Rifaux, the lady of the house, who is responsible for the warm atmosphere that reigns at Château de Saint-Aubin.

The atmosphere of the house is reflected in the four bedrooms, each with its own identity, carefully decorated and where every detail is designed to ensure comfort. The large spaces, combined with natural light, period furniture, flowery tapestries and touches of bright colour, highlight the character of each room.

Prosper Restaurant

The Prosper restaurant, named in homage to the founder of the House, offers a refined gastronomic and tourist experience at the heart of the Côte de Beaune terroir. At Prosper, everything is homemade, with the emphasis on local sourcing.

The reins of this new gourmet address have been entrusted to Édouard Mignot and Émilie Rey, the Michelin-starred chefs of the Ed'Em* restaurant in the neighbouring village of Chassagne-Montrachet.

A culinary experience featuring Prosper Maufoux Wines

The sincerity and terroir-based approach of their cuisine echo the philosophy that the Piffaut family instils in Maison Prosper Maufoux in the production of its wines from the most prestigious appellations in Burgundy. In a spirit of good environmental sense, the menu is composed seasonally, around revisited classics of Burgundian cuisine and dishes returned from the market, enhanced by the delicacy of the wines from Maison Prosper Maufoux.

VEUVE AMBAL

1st producer of Crémant de Bourgogne

All year round, the Maison Veuve Ambal opens its doors to visitors to share its expertise and passion for sparkling wines. At the heart of its resolutely modern production site and tasting cellar, all the secrets of Crémant de Bourgogne production are revealed.

/ DISCOVERING

Guides, audio guides, projections and explanatory panels take visitors step by step through a portrait of an emblematic vineyard. The concepts of terroir, climates, appellation and grape variety are explained to all audiences. For younger visitors, there are fun and colourful explanations to get them started.

/ IMMERSION

The tour takes you into the world of Crémant de Bourgogne. You'll follow in the footsteps of Veuve Ambal and its family history, which has been passed down from generation to generation since 1898. Then it's time to visit the winery, ageing cellars and other workshops where technology is at the service of Crémant de Bourgogne. Here, 8 million bottles come to life every year.

/ TASTING

The tour ends in the heart of the boutique. During a guided tasting session, you can discover a selection of Crémant de Bourgogne wines from the 30 vintages available from the House.

Tasting & Shop area

In a friendly atmosphere, visitors can come and discover, taste and buy the Crémants de Bourgogne as well as wines from other Famille Piffaut Vins & Domaines estates (Prosper Maufoux, André Delorme and Rivarose). Other Burgundy specialities are also to sell : mustard, gingerbread, aniseed, honey, etc.

Art Exhibition

Since 2010, Veuve Ambal has been one of the main sponsors of the Nicéphore Niepce Photography Museum in Chalon-sur-Saône (71). Exhibitions, drawn from the museum's collections, are organised on the Veuve Ambal premises. They are renewed three times a year, and regularly feature vernissages. The themes covered are as varied as cinema, fashion, the illustrated press, portraits of stars, history, etc.

ANDRÉ DELORME

Crémants de Bourgogne in the heart of Terroir

Head for the Côte Chalonnaise, in the heart of the Rully appellation, in the historic premises of the family business. Maison André Delorme makes its own Crémant de Bourgogne and also covers around twenty appellations that it selects, vinifies and ages in its cellars, including Rully, Givry, Montagny, Mercurey and Bouzeron. The art of entertaining is a genuine tradition here.

Tasting

Visitors are invited to taste a selection of our wines. For the more inquisitive, a range of guided tasting options are available for a more in-depth exploration of the Villages, Premier Crus and Crémants de Bourgogne appellations. Depending on the option chosen, the tasting can be accompanied by a regional speciality or continued by a visit to the cellar.

Visit

Maison André Delorme offers visitors a chance to discover the tools of yesteryear and learn all about the process of making Crémant de Bourgogne. This introduction continues with a tour of the vaulted cellars carved out of the rock and a tasting of Côte Chalonnaise wines and Crémant de Bourgogne in its completely renovated cellar, with its warm and friendly atmosphere.
